ONE OF THE MOST UNFORTUNATE THINGS

Connected with Modern Commerce is the enormous loss incurred year after year by Promiscuous and Irresponsible Advertising.

TO COUNTERACT THIS,

And direct Advertising into PROFITABLE CHANNELS, is the purpose of this message. Fertile brains are needed, but so is Practical Judgment. Talent goes far, but Knowledge must guide it; and in Advertising, above all other things, there is no substitute for experience.

Business Men who value the knowledge acquired by years of experience and a close study of the subject will appreciate our labours in this direction, and, possibly, honour us with a Consultation as to the best selection of Advertising media likely to work the desired improvement in their profits for the coming season. We ought to know something about it, for we admittedly do the largest business in our line out of London, and it has not come to us by accident.

For absolutely sure and successful Advertising is simple, and the remedy for the enormous waste already referred to is in your own hands.

FOR ONE YEAR

AND

Couch no other Intermediate Schemes whatever.

In Advertising, more may depend on the things that are avoided than on things that are done. The division of this money should be put in the hands of a Tried, Experienced, and Trustworthy Agent, and regarding this we beg respectfully to state that we are pre-eminently The Scottish Advertising House, and there is no other Agent whatever in Scotland, or out of it, that has the knowledge and experience necessary to work Scottish Advertising such as we have. (See List of our Agencies and Contracts on other parts of this Circular.)

Large fortunes are absolutely within the reach of the judicious Advertiser. Ours is the system adopted by the great Advertising Firms of To-Day, whose Members are realising gigantic fortunes, and leaving more Millions behind than have been left during any previous era of the world's history. Fortunes—large and small—have been made by men and women in every part of the globe who have had an article of merit to sell, and who have—intelligently, persistently, and economically—informed the Public of their Goods by means of Advertising.

THE Publishers of the Glasgow Post-Office Directory beg to express their thanks for the liberal patronage bestowed on the work during the long period of sixty-four years. It has ever been their desire that the information it contained should keep pace with the progress and general requirements of the Second City of the Empire, and every effort has been made to render it as accurate and complete as possible.

At the beginning of the book will be found a Map of the Environs of Glasgow, the Almanac, Tide Tables, Phases of the Moon, &c. The City Chamberlain and Mr. Henry, the City Assessor, have kindly supplied Statistics of the Population of the City and Suburbs (see page 31), as ascertained by the Census taken on 5th April, 1891, the Parliamentary and Municipal Voters for 1891-92, with the Parliamentary Divisions of the City and Members of Parliament, also the Voters on Electoral Roll for School Board, and the Rental of Glasgow for 1892. At pages 75 to 99 an Alphabetical List of Streets is given; as a handy guide to their situation the capital and small letters prefixed to each Street indicate its position on the Map, and the number at the end its registration district. The large Map, from actual survey by J. Bartholomew, Esq., Edinburgh, has been enlarged in order to include the entire area of the extended city. Great care as usual has been taken in showing the various new streets that have been formed since last issue. At page 32 will be found a detailed description of the new boundaries; and at page 81 of Appendix the names of the conveners and secretaries of the several municipal wards are given. The Map is placed at the end of the volume, so that it may lie open without interfering with the turning over of the pages.

In the Street Directory the number affixed to the name of each Street indicates the Municipal Ward in which it is placed for Electoral purposes. In order to make the work as largely available as possible the various Suburban Districts around the City are given, together with the members of Parliament for the Burgh or Division in which they are placed, viz.:—Bearsden, Bishopbriggs, Bothwell, Cambuslang, Cathcart, Lenzie, Milngavie, Pollokshaws, Rutherglen, Shettleston, Stepps (including Millerston), Tollcross, and Uddingston. The other suburban districts are now incorporated with the General Directory.

In the Appendix will be found useful details regarding Postal and Telegraph arrangements, together with Local and General Intelligence; and the Publishers beg to thank the gentlemen connected with the various Institutions for their kindness in supplying much useful information.

The printing has been done, as usual, by Mr. Mackenzie, Howard Street, and the binding by Messrs. Gowans & Gray, Ann Street.

Dr. B. W. RICHARDSON, F.R.S.—"Since these excellent Ventilators have been introduced we have now got perfect methods of Ventilation."

ARTHUR CATES, Esq., F.R.I.B.A., Architect to the Crown, &c.—"I have used your Air-Pump Ventilator with satisfactory result. Those fixed under my direction at the Library of the Inner Temple have realized my expectations, and completely fulfil the object which I had in view. I consider this application of them a severe test, and the success which has attended it confirms the statement which you make as to their efficacy."

Sir WILLIAM THOMSON, F.R.S., Glasgow University—"I have seen several different forms of Mr. Boyle's Air-Pump Ventilator in actual operation, and have much pleasure in testifying to their efficiency. They thoroughly realize the favourable anticipations which I formed from experiments on models shown to me by Mr. Boyle. Having one fitted up in my yacht, I find it has caused a very decided improvement in the draught."

STAMP AND LEGACY DUTIES, &c.

THE following is a list of Stamp Duties according to the schedule of the Stamp Act, 1891 (54 and 55 Vict. c. 39), which came into operation on 1st January, 1892, and except where otherwise mentioned, the sections referred to are those of the Act. Items relating solely to England and Ireland are omitted. The duties relating to Patent Medicine, Inventory, Stamp Account, Estate, Legacy, and Succession Duties, which remain under separate Acts, are inserted; also the exemptions which remain in force under other Acts. In the same session was passed the Stamp Duties Management Act, 54 and 55 Vict. c. 38. Generally, the items are given in the words of the schedule.

Except where express provision is made to the contrary, all duties are to be denoted by impressed stamps only.—§ 2.

Instruments are to be so stamped that the stamp may appear on the face of the instrument, and cannot be applied to any other instrument written upon the same piece of paper.—§ 3 (1). Every instrument on the same piece of paper is to be separately stamped.—§ 3 (2).

Instruments relating to several distinct matters are to be separately stamped in respect of each.—§ 4 (a). An instrument liable to ad valorem duty, if made for any other valuable consideration, is to be charged in respect of it, as if it were a separate instrument for such.—§ 4 (b).

All the facts and circumstances affecting the liability of an instrument to ad valorem duty, or the amount of it, are to be fully and truly set forth. If not, fine on person who executes and on person concerned in the preparation, £10.—§ 5.

Every condition of sale framed to preclude objection or requisition upon ground of insufficiency of stamp upon instrument executed after 16th May, 1888, and every contract, arrangement, or undertaking for assuming liability on account of insufficiency of stamp or indemnifying against such liability or insufficiency, void.—§ 117.

Foreign or colonial currency, or stock or marketable security, ad valorem duty to be calculated on value in British currency at current rate of exchange, or average price of stock or marketable security at date of instrument. Instrument containing statement of current rate of exchange, or average price, and stamped accordingly, to be deemed duly stamped until statement shown to be untrue, and that instrument is in fact insufficiently stamped.—§ 6.

An appropriated stamp (by word on the face of it) cannot be used for an instrument of another description.—§ 10 (1). An instrument of the description to which a stamp is appropriated is not to be duly stamped unless stamped with the stamp appropriated to it.—§ 10 (2).

The duties apply to instruments executed in United Kingdom, or relating, wheresoever executed, to property situated, or to any matter or thing done or to be done, in United Kingdom.—§ 14 (4).

Transfer of share registered in a Colonial Register under Companies (Colonial Registers) Act, 1883, deemed transfer of property situated out of United Kingdom, and, unless executed in any part of United Kingdom, exempt from British Stamp Duty.—46 and 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (a).

No instrument, except in criminal proceedings, shall be given in evidence, or be available for any purpose whatever unless it is duly stamped in accordance with the law in force when executed.—§ 14 (4).

If any person registers an instrument not duly stamped, fine £10.—§ 17.

Instruments relating to the property of the Crown and private property of the Sovereign, liable to same duties as instruments relating to the property of the subject, except where express provision to the contrary.—§ 119.

Any instrument specifically charged by any Act passed prior to 1871, not relating to stamp duties, with the duty of 3s. is chargeable with duty of 10s.—§ 120.

The officer of the Court, &c., to account for duty and penalties.—(2.) The officer, arbitrator, or referee receiving the said duty and penalty shall give a receipt for the same, and make an entry in a book kept for that purpose of the payment and of the amount thereof, and shall communicate to the Commissioners the name or title of the proceeding in which, and of the party from whom, he received the duty and penalty, and the date and description of the instrument, and shall pay over to such person as the Commissioners may appoint, the money received by him for the duty and penalty.

Commissioners to stamp instrument.—(3.) Upon production to the Commissioners of any instrument in respect of which any duty or penalty has been paid as aforesaid, together with the receipt of the said officer, the payment of such duty and penalty shall be denoted on such instrument accordingly.

ADJUDICATION.

DOUBTS AS TO SUFFICIENCY OF STAMPS MAY BE REMOVED.

Commissioners may be required to express their opinion as to duty. Mode and effect of proceeding.—§ 12. (1.) Subject to such regulations as Commissioners may think fit to make, Commissioners may be required by any person to express their opinion with reference to any executed instrument upon the following questions:—

(a.) Whether it is chargeable with any duty:—

(b.) With what amount of duty it is chargeable.

(2.) Commissioners to be furnished with an abstract of instrument, and such evidence as they deem necessary to show whether facts and circumstances affecting liability to duty are fully and truly set forth.

(3.) If the Commissioners are of opinion that the instrument is not chargeable with any duty, such instrument may be stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is not chargeable with any duty.

(4.) If the Commissioners are of opinion that the instrument is chargeable with duty, they shall assess the duty with which it is in their opinion chargeable, and if or when instrument is duly stamped in accordance with assessment of the Commissioners, it may be also stamped with a particular stamp denoting that it is duly stamped.

(5.) Every instrument stamped with the particular stamp denoting either that it is not chargeable with any duty, or is duly stamped, shall be admissible in evidence, and available for all purposes, notwithstanding any objection relating to duty.

(6.) Provided as follows:—

(a.) Instrument to be stamped according to opinion.

—An instrument upon which the duty has been assessed by the Commissioners shall not, if it is unstamped or insufficiently stamped, be stamped otherwise than in accordance with the assessment.

(b.) Securities without limit not to be adjudicated.

—Nothing in this section contained extends to any instrument chargeable with ad valorem duty; and made as a security for money or stock without limit, or shall authorize the stamping after the execution thereof of any instrument which by law cannot be stamped after execution.

(c.) A statutory declaration made for the purpose of this section shall not be used against any person making the same in any proceeding whatever, except in an inquiry as to the duty with which the instrument to which it relates is chargeable; and every person by whom any such declaration is made shall, on payment of the duty chargeable upon the instrument to which it relates, be relieved from any fine or disability to which he may be liable, by reason of the omission to state truly in the instrument any fact or circumstance as aforesaid.

Persons dissatisfied may appeal.—§ 13. (1.) Any person who is dissatisfied with the assessment of the Commissioners, may, within twenty-one days after the date of the assessment, and on payment of duty in conformity therewith, appeal against the assessment to Her Majesty's Court of Exchequer, and may for that purpose require the Commissioners to state and sign a case, setting forth the question upon which their opinion was required, and the assessment made by them.

Mode of proceeding.—(2.) The Commissioners shall thereupon state and sign a case accordingly, and deliver the same to the person by whom it is required, and the case may within seven days thereafter be set down by him for hearing.

(3.) Upon the hearing of the case the court shall determine the question submitted, and, if the instrument in question is in the opinion of the court chargeable with any duty, shall assess the duty with which it is chargeable.

(4.) If it is decided by the court that the assessment of the Commissioners is erroneous, any excess of duty which may have been paid in conformity with the erroneous assessment, together with any fine or penalty which may have been paid in consequence thereof, shall be ordered by the court to be repaid to the appellant, with or without costs as the court may determine.

(5.) If the assessment of the commissioners is confirmed, the court may make an order for payment to the Commissioners of the costs incurred by them in relation to the appeal.

INVENTORY DUTY.

PROPERTY LIABLE TO THE DUTY.—Generally—

All personal property (heritable securities are personal property, including bonds of annual rent and bonds of annuity, and real burdens on land, but not securities by absolute disposition qualified by back bond) belonging to the deceased in the United Kingdom, heritable securities, and bonds excluding executors, and also money secured by ex facie absolute disposition.—(48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38, &c.; 55 Geo. III. c. 184, Schedule, Part III.; 21 and 22 Vict. c. 56, §§ 9, 12, 13, &c.; 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8; 31 and 32 Vict. c. 101, §§ 3 and 117; 37 and 38 Vict. c. 94, § 30; and 23 and 24 Vict. c. 80). Proceeds of a life policy effected by a person dying domiciled elsewhere than in the United Kingdom not liable.—52 and 53 Vict. c. 42, § 19.

Personal property.—Absolute power of disposal.—

Personal estate which a person, dying after 3rd April, 1860, shall have disposed of by will, under any authority enabling such person to dispose of the same as he shall think fit, shall be deemed personal or movable estate of the person so dying, for the purpose of payment of inventory, probate, or administration duty.—(23 Vict. c. 15, § 4.)

Indian Promissory Notes.—Ships.—Indian Government promissory notes and certificates issued, or stock in lieu thereof, being assets of a deceased person, the interest of which shall be payable in London, registered in London, or enfaced in India for the purpose of such registration before the death of the owner; also Indian Government promissory notes, with coupons attached, in the same circumstances as to registration, and certificates issued, or stock created in lieu thereof, shall be personal estate, and bona notabilia in England of the deceased person (23 Vict. c. 5, § 1); also any ship, or any share of a ship, belonging to a deceased person registered in any port in the United Kingdom, notwithstanding such ship at the time of the death may have been at sea, or elsewhere out of the United Kingdom, shall be deemed to be at the port at which she may be registered (27 and 28 Vict. c. 56), and liable to inventory, probate, or administration duty.

Specialty Debts.—For probate and administration duty, debts and sums of money due from persons in the United Kingdom to a deceased on obligation or other specialty, shall be estate and effects of the deceased within the jurisdiction of Her Majesty's Court of Probate in England or Ireland, in which the same would be if they were debts upon simple contract, without regard to the place where the obligation or specialty shall be at the time of the death.—(25 Vict. c. 22, § 39).

Foreign Bonds and Stocks.—Documents of the debts of foreign governments and foreign companies which pass from hand to hand are property where the documents may be. Debentures or bonds by foreign companies and governments, and the title to stocks of foreign companies and governments, are property in this country, if in the possession of any person in this country, and can be sold in the market, and the title of the purchasers completed to them in this country. See Attorney-General v. Bouwens, 4 Meeson and Welsby, 171.

Companies under the Companies Acts whose objects comprise business in a colony may have a branch register of members resident in said colony. The share of a deceased member registered in such colonial register shall be part of the estate of such deceased member for inventory duty, in like manner as if the registration had been in the registered office of the company, unless he shall have died elsewhere than in the United Kingdom.—(46 and 47 Vict. c. 30, § 3 (7) (b), and 52 and 53 Vict. c. 42, § 18).

Rents of Heritage.—If the deceased survive Whitsunday, one moiety of the rents of the crop of that year is personal estate. If he survive Martinmas, the whole rents of that crop fall into the executors. In addition, from and after 1st August, 1870, the Act 33 & 34 Vict. 1870, c. 35, would seem to give the executor a proportion of the rents from the term preceding the date of death to the date of death. That Act would also seem to give a proportion of the term's rents of quarries, minerals, and houses, and also feu-duties current at the death. The executor's right to house-rents would not therefore be to the half year's rents current at death, but to a proportion only to the date of death.

MODES IN WHICH DUTY MAY BE PAID.

When deceased domiciled in Scotland.—In the case of a person dying domiciled in Scotland, having personal property in Scotland, England, and Ireland, and also heritable securities excluding executors, and personal bonds excluding executors, duty in respect of the whole may be paid on the inventory required to be recorded in the Sheriff Court; or inventory duty may be paid on the personal property situated in Scotland, including heritable securities made movable by the Act 31 and 32 Vict. c. 101, § 117, and duty may be paid on a "special inventory" of the heritable securities excluding executors and personal bonds excluding executors, and probate or administration may be obtained in England and Ireland in respect of the personal estate in these countries, and duty paid in respect of such on these instruments.

When deceased domiciled furth of the United Kingdom.—In case of a person dying domiciled furth of the United Kingdom leaving personal estate in Scotland, England, and Ireland, an inventory must be given up in Scotland, probate or administration taken out in England and Ireland, and duty paid on such in respect of the property in each country.

In exhibiting inventories after 1st June, 1881, the amount of debts due and owing by the deceased to persons in the United Kingdom, and funeral expenses, may be deducted from the value of the estate, for the purpose of paying the inventory duty. The account of such to be delivered with or annexed to the affidavit to the inventory.

The debts not to include voluntary debts payable on death or payable under instruments not bona fide delivered three months before death. The Commissioners of Inland Revenue within three years may call for evidence of the contents of or particulars verified by the affidavit or inventory.

Where the gross estate of a deceased person dying after 1st June, 1881, does not exceed £300, and the estate exceeds £100, if an inventory shall be given up in accordance with the special provisions of the Act, the duty to which the inventory is liable is 30s.—(44 Vict. c. 12, § 34.)

Forms of the inventory and relative affidavit may be obtained at the Inland Revenue Office (Legacy and Succession Duty Department).

Additional and Corrective Inventories.—If there shall be any omission in the inventory, inferring the payment of further duty, an additional inventory is required to be exhibited.—(48 Geo. III. c. 149, § 38; 16 and 17 Vict. c. 59, § 8). The stamp on the additional inventory is required to be of an amount sufficient to make up the stamp duty in respect of the total amount of all the estate. If the estate shall be over-estimated, or if something shall be improperly included in the inventory, a corrective inventory, duly stamped, requires to be exhibited. Allowance of the original inventory as a spoiled stamp will be obtained within six months after the recording of the second inventory.

The husband or wife of the deceased is not chargeable with duty. If the legatee's husband or wife is of nearer consanguinity than the legatee, duty is payable according to such nearer relationship. (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51, § 11.)

This duty is payable for every legacy out of the personal or movable estate, or out of any personal estate the deceased has power to dispose of; and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) upon every legacy out of or charged upon the real or heritable estate of the deceased, or out of any moneys to arise by the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of the deceased's real or heritable estate, or any part thereof, or out of heritable estate subject to his power of disposal: Also for the clear residue (after deducting debts, funeral expenses, legacies, and other charges first payable thereout) of the personal or movable estate, whether the title to such residue shall accrue by virtue of any testamentary disposition, or upon a partial or total intestacy, and (in the case of a deceased dying before 1st July, 1888) for the clear residue of the moneys to arise from the sale, mortgage, or other disposition of any real or heritable estate directed to be sold, mortgaged, or otherwise disposed of by any will or testamentary instrument. Such duties, in respect of real or heritable estate, to cease in the case of persons dying on or after 1st July, 1888, and in lieu thereof the duties payable under the Succession Duty Act, 1853, and the additional duty under the Act 51 Vict. c. 8 shall be payable (51 Vict. c. 8, § 21, 2).

Annuities commencing to be payable on the death of persons dying after 19th May, 1853, are valued for legacy duty according to tables annexed to the Succession Duty Act (16 and 17 Vict. c. 51); annuities commencing to be payable previous to that date, by the tables annexed to the Legacy Duty Act (36 Geo. III. c. 52).

Where the testator or intestate died before 1st June, 1881, duty is not exigible on legacies or residues under £20; but if a legatee take two or more legacies, under any testament, which shall together be of the amount of £20, each shall be charged with duty, though each or either may be separately under that amount. (See 44 Vict. c. 12, § 42.) Also where the value of the whole of the personal estate of any person dying after 24th March, 1880, does not amount to £100, no duty shall be chargeable in respect thereof, or of any portion thereof (43 Vict. c. 14, § 13).

The legacy duty presumptively payable upon an interest in expectancy may be commuted for a present payment (ib. § 11).

The Commissioners of Inland Revenue have power to accept a composition for legacy duty under a will (44 Vict. c. 12, § 43).

Duty on legacies and residues in arrears, interest thereon at the rate of 4 per cent. is payable (31 and 32 Vict. c. 124, § 9).

Where a full and true account containing all material facts has been rendered, liability for duty to cease after six years from settlement of account (52 Vict. c. 7, § 14).

Estates not exceeding £300 and deceased dying on or after 1st June, 1881. Payment of fixed duty of 30s. on inventory to be in full of claim to legacy duty on estate to which such inventory relates (44 Vict. c. 12, § 36).

Printed forms and regulations for payment of the legacy duty may be obtained gratis, on application at Legacy Duty Office, Inland Revenue, Edinburgh; and at the offices of distributors of stamps in the country.

SUCCESSION DUTY.

(16 and 17 Vict. c. 51, 51 Vict. c. 8, §§ 21 and 22, and 52 Vict. c. 7, §§ 10–12, 14, and 15).

The duty commenced on the death of persons dying after the 19th May, 1853, and seems to be imposed on all property, both heritable and movable, passing by death, not liable to the duty on legacies and successions to personal estate upon intestacy—the duty imposed by the Legacy Duty Acts.

The duty on HERITABLE PROPERTY is charged on the annual value, after allowance of the necessary outgoing (§ 22), as an annuity for the life of the successor (§ 21), which is to be valued by tables annexed to Act.

PERSONAL PROPERTY is liable to duty according to the value of the succession; and money charged on heritage—heritable securities—is charged as personality (§ 1).

Scottish Provident Institution

INSTITUTED
1837

INCORPORATED

IN this SOCIETY are combined the advantages of Mutual Assurance with Moderate Premiums.

THE PREMIUMS are so moderate that an Assurance of £1200 or £1250 may generally be secured from the first for the yearly payment which usually would be charged (with profits) for £1000 only—equivalent to an immediate Bonus of 20 to 25 per cent.

The WHOLE PROFITS go to the Policyholders, on a system at once safe and equitable,—no share being given to those by whose early death there is a loss. Large additions have thus been, and will be, made to the policies of those who participate, notwithstanding the lowness of the premiums.

The SURPLUS at last Investigation (1887) was £1,051,035, which, after reserving one-third, was divided among 9384 Policies entitled to participate. First additions (with few exceptions) ranged from 18 to 34 per cent, according to age and class. Other Policies were increased in all 50 to 80 per cent.

At the 54th Annual Meeting on 30th March last the following were the Results Reported for the year 1891.

New Assurances completed were £1,208,287.

Premiums in year £609,292.

Total Income £936,713.

The Claims (including Bonus Additions) were £368,000.

Over 60 per cent of the amount of these Claims was paid in respect of Policies which had participated in the Surplus—the Bonus Additions averaging almost 50 per cent of the original Assurances.

THE FUNDS amounted at 31st Dec. 1891 to £7,801,431.

Their increase during the year was £444,812.

Arrangements as to SURRENDERS, NON-FORFEITURE, LOANS ON POLICIES, EARLY PAYMENT OF CLAIMS, FREE RESIDENCE, &c., are specially liberal.

[The usual non-participating Rates differ little from these Premiums.]

A person of 30 may secure £1000 at death, by a yearly payment, during life, of £20 15s.

This Premium would generally elsewhere secure £300 only, instead of £1000.

OR, he may secure £1000 by 21 yearly payments of £27 : 13 : 4—being thus free of payment after age 50.

† At age 40, the Premium ceasing at age 60 is, for £1000, £33 : 14 : 2,—about the same as most Offices require during the whole term of life. Before the Premiums have ceased, the Policy will have shared in at least one division of profits. To Professional Men and others, whose income is dependent on continuance of health, the limited payment system is specially recommended.
